Grade Trends

- Strong science and overall GPAs are essential.
- Positive grade trends matter
- Negative grade trends are cause for concern (repeated withdrawals, poor science grades, excessive science coursework outside UGA)

Show you can handle rigorous scientific content.

Graduate Record Examination

Most OT schools require that applicants take the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). The GRE consists of three sections: Quantitative, Verbal, and Essay section.

There are no specific courses that you need to take prior to the GRE, but you should plan to dedicate roughly six to eight weeks to exam preparation.

While you can opt for a commercial prep course for the GRE, self-study is often sufficient. Generally, it is recommended for you to take the GRE January-May as you head into the application cycle.

The GRE is offered via University Testing Services on a regular basis. GRE scores are good for 5 years.

General Information

- Most schools use OTCAS (opens in July)
 - Augusta uses its own system (opens July 1)
- Apply early due to rolling admissions
- Most schools require Transcripts, GRE scores, Personal Statements, & Letters of Evaluations
- Master's or Doctoral Degree (Trending towards being the doctoral level.)
- Usually 2-3 years long

Occupational Therapists help clients regain independence in daily activities (ADLs). Unlike Physical Therapy (PT), which focuses on movement, OT takes a more holistic, environment-adapting approach.

There is no "best" major for pre-OT students. You are encouraged to pursue a major you are genuinely interested in to help you excel.

Volunteering & Extracurriculars

- Does not have to be related to OT - pursue what you are passionate about.
- Emphasizing work with people with disabilities (e.g., ESP, Special Olympics, AIRS, Camp Twin Lakes) can help show commitment, but is not required.
- Leadership and consistency matter
- Consider UGA's Disabilities Certificate for added engagement
- Research is not a requirement, though if you have an interest in research it can help to diversify your experiences

Shadowing

- Recommended: 100+ hours across 3-4 diverse settings
- Log hours using school specific OT log forms and have OTS verify/sign
- Schools value depth and diversity in involvement— focus on quality, not quantity
- Always check what your target school requires. Shadowing requirements can vary among schools.

Letters of Evaluation

- Large lecture classes make it harder to connect, so be intentional in building relationships with professors
- Attend office hours regularly
- Engage during class & labs
- Develop relationships over a period of time for a strong letter

Most OT schools require three letters of evaluation. Requirements can vary between schools, and it is the student's responsibility to ensure that they have collected the correct letters for their program of interest.

Generally, programs expect students to provide:

- one letter from a licensed OT
- one letter from a faculty member (some schools require this to be a major professor)
- one professional (employer, research mentor, etc.)

Choose Letter Writers Wisely

- Pick people who know you well
- Choose strong, specific letters over generic letters
- Ask early and give plenty of notice

Students should select what they believe will be the most compelling letter.
